DUKES FAMILY SPOTLIGHT

Brian MacKenzie
Assistant Coach

Brian joins the Dukes family after spending four successful seasons as an Assistant General Manager/Assistant Coach with the Whitby Fury/Haliburton County Huskies of the OJHL.

Involved in hockey for over 25+ years, he has coached, managed, and mentored at all levels as well as held the position as an area scout in the Ontario Hockey League, Brian worked with the Plymouth Whalers (2002-2007). During that period they captured an OHL Championship and represented the OHL at the 2007 MasterCard Memorial Cup in Vancouver. Following his time in Plymouth, he spent the following 3 seasons as area scout with the Sarnia Sting of the OHL.

Brian brings a passion and commitment to his players and each organization he represents. He strongly believes in proper player mentorship, support, and development. His extensive and widespread coaching experience has provided countless opportunities to coach, develop and mentor many past and present players representing the NHL, AHL, NCAA & CIS.

What I would like fans to know

I would like Welly fans to know "I'm really excited to be part of the Dukes family, they have such a great hockey history and being part of the 35th anniversary makes it even more special ... I'm looking forward to working with a whole bunch of young players and helping them develop and get to the next level".

Brian
