Best Hockey Advice I have been given?

Work hard when you are alone, so that you play better when everyone is watching and the importance of mentally preparing myself.

Why I love being a Duke?

Gaining experience from the coaches and playing in the atmosphere of the building, and the fan base and support.

I want Dukes fans to know:

That I'm going to work my hardest and compete every practice and game. I will do everything to help the team win.

Kent Lewis – Head Coach & Director of Hockey Operations

Let's give a round of applaud to our new Head Coach Kent Lewis who has been key in building this great team for the Dukes fans for the past couple of months!

A native of Powell River, BC, Kent has spent more than 20 years behind benches of teams in the BCHL, including his hometown Paper Kings/Kings for two different stints, the Nanaimo Clippers and Victoria Salsa (now Grizzlies) from 1990 to 2018.

Prior to his coaching career, the 57-year-old suited up as a player with Nanaimo and the former Esquimalt Buccaneers, along with the Victoria (now Prince George) Cougars of the WHL from 1982-87

Notable coaching achievements include;

- Multiple "Coach of the Year" awards in the BCHL
- A gold medal with team Canada West at the World Junior "A" Challenge
- Allan Cup Championship, and a silver medal for Canada at the Nagano Cup.
- A Junior hockey winning percentage of .629 in over a 1,000 games at the Jr A level.
- One of the countries leaders in advancing players on to the NCAA and Canadian Universities.
- One of two coaches to have captured SEVEN Conference Championships in BCHL history.
- Jr A Level with Nanaimo Clippers BCHL
- Major Junior Level with the Victoria Cougars WHL
- Garnered MVP, Rookie of the Year and Inspirational awards from his time in Nanaimo.

What I want the fans to know - I want my kids to provide our fans and community with good hard work and honest play and to truly know that they are in a very caring community and I want to give everyone the best that I can give. I want my players to be role models on and off the ice to kids and the community alike.

I think it's going to be a fun journey for everyone.

We came in with challenges - our fans and loyal supporters are understanding of that and we will embark on this journey together.

Kent
