COMMUNITY LIVING
Prince Edward

WELLINGTON, ON - SEPTEMBER 15:
Ryan Schaap #24 of the Wellington
Dukes shoots the puck during the third period at the Lehigh Arena
(Ed McPherson / OJHL Images)

The Dukes are passionate about supporting our community not for profit groups and welcome Community Living Prince Edward tonight.

Community Living Prince Edward is a not-for-profit organization who provides services for over 350 children, youth, and adults with an intellectual disability in PEC and surrounding areas. Their services are inclusive of accommodation supports, community participation, family services and employment. Community Living PE exist to support the full participation, inclusion, and citizenship of people with an intellectual disability in the life of the community.

Representing Community Living today on the red carpet is Jessica Huff. Also present today at the CLP booth in the lobby is Stacey Kinnear, coordinator of the Associate Home program and Audrey Hugh, Supervisor, Supports & Services.

Please visit their booth in the lobby and show your support by purchasing a raffle ticket for your chance to win a Dukes Game worn autographed Dukes Jersey. Draw to take place during first intermission and winner will be announced by our PA Announcer.

Hey Fans please help us raise money for our charity of the game Community Living Prince Edward.

Thank you for your continued support in our efforts to support local not for profit organizations in our community.
