Welcome to the Dukes Annual Wellington-Consecon Firefighters Toy Drive!

Let's Fill the Boot! The Wellington Dukes have raised thousands of dollars over the years for the local firefighters Toy Drive. Through our Skate with Santa and December Teddy Bear Toss plus amazing cash donations by our fans. We are honoured to keep this event going year after year.

Please welcome the Wellington - Consecon Firefighters, Sparky and Duke along with daughter of the late Ken Haight, Angela Haight-Roddy for our ceremonial puck drop.

Approximately 75 Scentsy Buddies were donated for todays Dukes Firefighters Toy Drive by Scentsy Representative Angela Haight Roddy to honour the memory of her dad Ken Haight who gave 33 years of service to the Hillier Fire Department. Starting out as a Captain, his last 28 years were as District Fire Chief. He was dedicated to our community and when he passed, Angela decided to step up to the plate and start giving back in honour of him. Last year was a first Christmas without their Dad, when Angela decided this toy fundraiser was one small way she could honour her dads memory by putting smiles on a child's face at Christmas. "This annual Toy donation really helps us heal as a family said Angela".

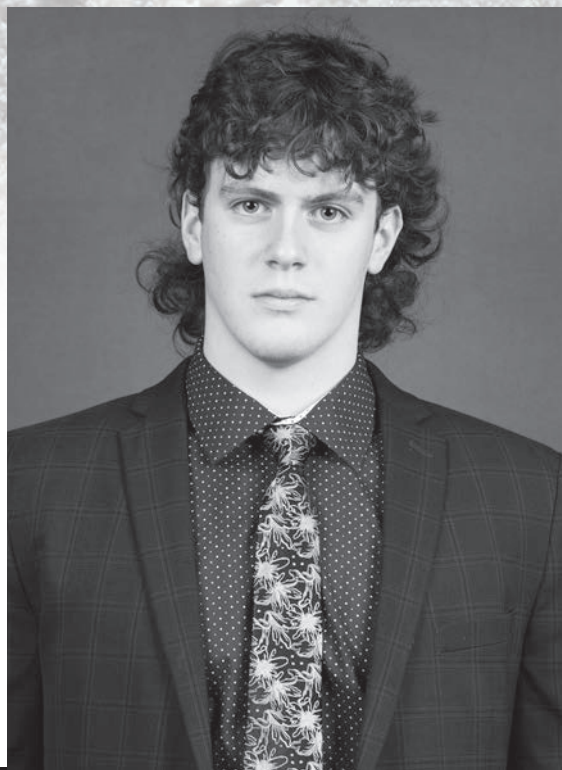

Thank you to Angela Haight-Roddy for the donation of dozens of Scentsy Buddies for todays Firefighters Toy Drive.

SIGNED

The Wellington Dukes have signed up to volunteer for the Salvation Army Christmas Kettles again this year!

Team members will be standing at our kettles at various locations throughout the month of December. They are helping The Salvation Army Picton Community Church to raise money for our food bank, temporary emergency lodging, emergency response, warming centre support, Christmas gifts and toys for local youth, back to school supplies, clothing, warm coats, outdoor gear, and many other community outreach services. All funds raised help to support those in need of assistance within Prince Edward County.
