Dukes Snap Trenton Winning Streak!

The Wellington Dukes proved themselves to be giant killers in a rivalry matchup at the Duncan McDonald Community Gardens.

In the final installment of the 2025-26 Battle of Quinte season series, the Dukes handed the Trenton Golden Hawks their first loss in exactly a month in a 5-2 decision, snapping Trenton's 11 game winning streak in the process.

Wearing special jerseys to be auctioned off in support of the Trenton Memorial Hospital Foundation, the Hawks got the ball rolling with Josh Penney's eighth in a Trenton jersey 3:32 into the day, beating Dryden Riley, but that was the most control the host team would have in the game.

Isaiah Shantz and Andrew Wycisk picked up the assists.

Wellington fought its way back even, as Aiden Lee, responsible for the game-tying marker in Minden on Saturday to finish a comeback, slipped home his third goal in two games through Hayden Jeffery around the 11-minute mark from Cooper Woron and Cain Tucker.

The visiting Dukes then grabbed the lead with a Liam Campbell marker at the 13:57 juncture, his 23rd of the year from Evan Erwin and ran with it into the intermission.

Toward the end of a hard-fought second period, the Dukes managed to add on with Zack Carrier's 33rd of the year, assisted by Cole Ellis and Zach Mascard at 16:58.

Wellington's momentum kept rolling into the third, as Campbell buried his second of the game and 24th of the season a little more than a minute into the period from Lee and Kyle Grasby.

Wycisk ripped home a powerplay goal to cut into the Wellington lead, assisted by Lucas Digiantommaso and Jack Ziliotto at 9:16.

Despite a big push, the Hawks couldn't break further through thanks to the brilliance of Trenton native Riley.

Mascard put the game on ice with an empty netter from Woron and Tucker for his 15th of the year.

Riley finished with 38 saves on 40 shots in his first return to his hometown rink.

Hayden Jeffery made 26 saves for Trenton in the defeat.

The Dukes earned a point for a third straight game and improved to 25-16-4-5 on the season with 59 points.

37th consecutive season making playoffs!

For the 37th consecutive season, the Wellington Dukes have clinched a berth in the 2026 OJHL Buckland Cup Playoffs!

Stay tuned for matchups and series details!

Best Hockey Advice I have been given:

Work hard

What it means to play in Wellington:

It means a lot to play in Wellington, for the past 3 years in the ojhl every time I played against the Wellington Dukes I always thought to myself how much of a privilege it would be to play in Lehigh arena in-front of Wellington fans.

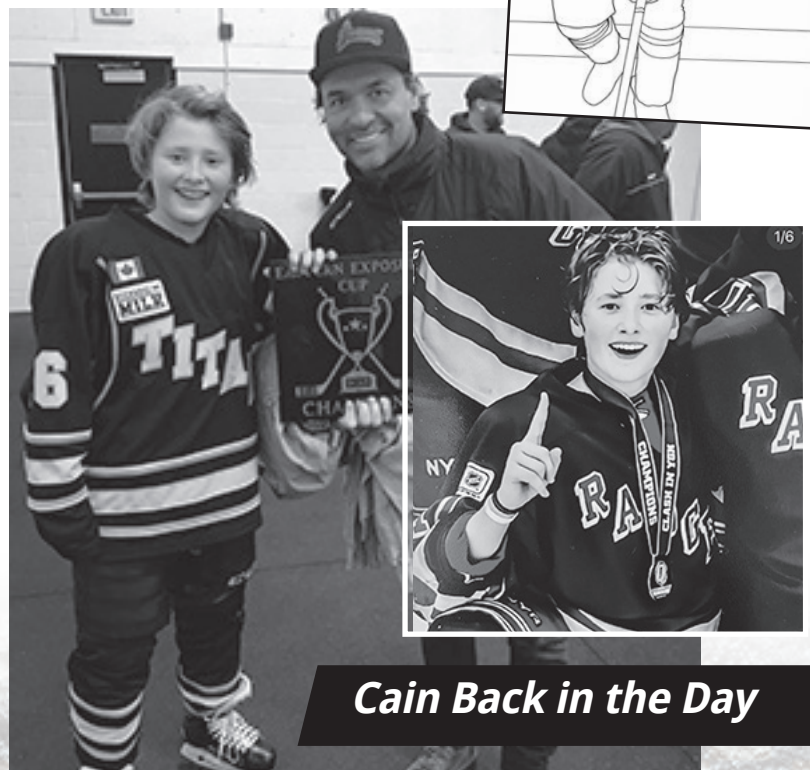

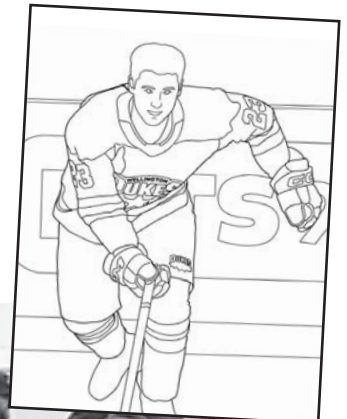

Why I love being a Duke:

I love playing in-front of the fans and love Prince Edward County and the fans passion for hockey.

I want fans to know:

We want to win every night for the fans and the fans passion matches ours.

In the News ... Game Recap

Congrats to Duker forward 16 yr old Lorne Miles on scoring his 1st OJHL goal in a 7-1 win over the North York Rangers!

Story by Brock Ormond

The Wellington Duker got back on the right track with a 7-1 downing of the North York Rangers on Thursday night.

Seven different players lit up Lehigh Arena with goals, including Zack Carrier's team-leading 32nd of the year and Lorne Miles first in the OJHL.

Wellington erased a breakaway goal from Kyson Patterson 3:30 into the game with Carrier's tally, beating North York goalie Reid Thomas through the legs less than a minute later.

Liam Campbell buried a Will Mitchell feed for his 22nd of the season before Cooper Woron unscrambled a rebound for his fifth to put Wellington ahead for the rest of the night.

Any hopes the Rangers had of clawing back into the game were dashed 12 seconds into the second period on a Cole Ellis bouncer from outside the North York blueline for his eighth of the season.

Halfway through the frame, Sacha Trudel pulled off a quintessential sequence, drilling a Ranger player into the boards in his own end, then turned on the jets to burst past the North York defence in the offensive zone and tucking the puck through Thomas' pads for his 15th of the season.

Evan Erwin gave a rebound a good whack to bulge the twine for his 13th of the year in the third and Miles tacked on one more for good measure, burying a second chance effort for his first career goal in junior hockey.

The 16-year-old from Carrying Place earned first star honours for that milestone.

Zach Mascard finished with three assists, Mitchell, Cain Tucker and Tristan Williams adding two.

The Duker outshot the Rangers 44-33. Royden Smith made 32 stops as the Duker rebounded from two tough losses.
