A MESSAGE FROM OJHL IMAGES TO GRADUATING PLAYERS

From all of us at OJHL Images, this message is for the players who are aging out and graduating from the Ontario Junior Hockey League.

It has been our honour to stand behind the glass, along the boards, and in the corners of rinks across the League to capture your journey.

Remembering your first game. We've chronicled your journey from rookies finding your stride to leaders wearing letters on your chest. We've documented the goals, the saves, the cellys, the heartbreaks, the championships, and the quiet moments in between at the rink.

Every frame tells a story - your story.

Junior hockey is more than a league. It's early mornings, long road trips, lifelong friendships, billet families, and lessons that extend far beyond the ice. Through our lenses, we've seen your resilience, your passion, and your commitment to something bigger than yourselves.

Thank you for allowing us to preserve those memories.

Years from now, when you look back at a photo from your first season or your final shift, we hope you feel the pride of how far you came. Whether you're moving on to the next level, stepping into a new career, or carrying the game with you in a different way, your time here matters - and it will always be part of the fabric of this league and OJHL Images.

Congratulations on everything you've accomplished.

We are proud to have captured your junior hockey journey - from your first game in the OJ to your final salute. This is our mission at OJHL Images, and you are the best of what we do, Until we meet again !

MILTON, ONTARIO - JANUARY 18: Cole Ellis #4 of OJHL All-Star Team East at the Milton Memorial Arena on January 18, 2026 in Milton, Ontario. (Photo by Tim Bates / OJHL Images)

All-Star Selection: On January 13, 2026, Cole was officially named to the 2026 OJHL All-Star Game, a testament to his breakout performance during the 2025-26 campaign.

Physicality: Cole is noted for bringing a "high level of toughness" to the Dukes' back end, consistently ranking among the team's leaders in penalty minutes while maintaining a strong defensive presence.

Development: After recording 13 points in his rookie OJHL season, Cole Ellis more than doubled his point total in 2025-26, reaching double digits in goals for the first time in his junior career.
